Professional Development Institute
The New Practitioner: Integrity, Practice, & Career Advancement
N4A National Conference – Salt Lake City, Utah
Sheraton Salt Lake City Hotel & the University of Utah
June 8 (evening) – June 10, 2010

PDI defines professional development as the enhancement of technical knowledge, interpersonal skills, and self-awareness. PDI Faculty and students collectively build a community of learning that honors ethical decision-making, promotes meaningful dialogue, and creates opportunities for personal and professional growth.

In an effort to advance the professional development of those individuals who have been advising and counseling student athletes less than 3 years, the PDI will once again offer the “New Practitioner” track prior to the 2010 N4A National Conference.

The New Practitioner track is comprised of a series of interconnected intensive and interactive sessions facilitated by seasoned practitioners who are dedicated to the professional growth and career advancement of individuals serving student-athletes on university and college campuses. The Institute will address such topics as follows:

- ❑ Safeguarding Your Integrity & Navigating Institutional Culture & Climate
- ❑ Developmental Advising
- ❑ Monitoring Eligibility
- ❑ Working Effectively with Coaches
- ❑ Coordinating Support Services
- ❑ Climbing the Career Ladder: Planning Your Next Move

The Institute will continue throughout the year through mentoring and continuing education activities.

The New Practitioner track is limited to 20 participants chosen through a competitive application process.

To apply, submit the “New Practitioner” application form, personal statement, current resume and a letter of recommendation/nomination from your current supervisor or director no later than March 15, 2010. Applicants selected to participate will be notified no later than March 25, 2010 and must submit a registration fee of $100.00 to the N4A National Office by April 15, 2010.

Participants are responsible for lodging costs ($139.00 plus tax for single or double occupancy.) Complete hotel reservation information will be sent to each participant after selections have been made.
