

N4A Life Skills Committee Meeting Minutes
N4A National Convention, Phoenix, AZ
June 8, 2007

Life Skills Chair: Dena Freeman-Patton (Georgia State University)
Life Skills Co-Chair: Jennifer Svatik (University at Albany)

Meeting was called to order at 4:50pm, 37 members present

- I. There was discussion of the role of the Life Skills Committee. People were encouraged to be involved in the working committee. Introductions were given (attached is the names of the attendees).
- II. Review of committee projects: Memorial Moments for this convention, but will be with another committee after this year. Community Service Project will continue to be the responsibility of the Life Skills Committee.
- III. Competitive Resources Group (CRG) presentation (DJ Washington) – talked briefly about organization and discussed the following topics:
 - Resume Assistance
 - Skills Transitioning
 - Working with outside businesses

Attendees saw a benefit and asked several questions. DJ would like to return next year and maybe do a larger scale presentation. His goal is to help train advisors to do some of the things that he does so that he reaches a larger number of student-athletes.

- IV. There was a call for assistance with the Community Service Project. Monday's committee meeting will be an environment for idea sharing. Dena will also add all attendees to the Life Skills Listserve.
