

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
7/1/08

Christine Jackson elected next N4A President

KANSAS CITY, MO --- The National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) elected Christine Jackson president during its national convention in Kansas City, Missouri held June 6-8. Jackson will serve the next 12 months as President-Elect before beginning her term as President in June 2009.

Jackson is the Associate Director of Academic Services at the University of Louisville. Her responsibilities include advising the Field Hockey, Men's Golf and Women's Golf teams as well as the Spirit Groups. She also directs the academic services staff while managing office expenditures and all financial records. Christine is a member of Louisville's Committee on Academic Performance which is chaired by the Faculty Athletic Representative and serves as the liaison to the Colleges of Education and Nursing. Jackson has served the N4A as Director of Region II for the past year. Additionally, she has been a member of various committees within the association and participated in the Inaugural N4A Professional Development Institute in 2005.